

Journal of Telemedicine and Telecare

Volume 15    Number 4    2009

LEADER

Focus

- 161 Information architecture of a telecare system
W H Collinge and K Liu

RESEARCH

Original articles

- 165 A retrospective study of adult telephone triage calls in a US call centre
F North and P Varkey
- 171 Informed consent for videoconsultations in Canada
I Chouinard and R E Scott
- 175 A systematic review of the use of telehealth in Asian countries
H Durrani and S Khoja
- 182 A randomized controlled trial of telephone-supported care coordination in patients with congestive heart failure
R Wootton, H Gramotnev and D Hailey
- 187 Telehospice: reasons for slow adoption in home hospice care
P Whitten, B Holtz, E Meyer and S Nazione

- 191 A comparison of telephonography with standard ultrasound care in a rural Dominican clinic
J E Sutherland, H D Sutphin, F Rawlins, K Redican and J Burton
- 196 Validation of home telehealth for pressure ulcer assessment: a study in patients with spinal cord injury
M L Hill, R C Cronkite, D T Ota, E C Yao and B J Kiratli
- 203 Preliminary results from a telemedicine referral network for early diagnosis of sleep apnoea in sleep laboratories
N Boehning, A Blau, B Kujumdshieva, A Staubitz and W Boehning

RESEARCH

Case reports

- 208 Case report: an example of international telemedicine success
W Froehlich, S Seitaboth, N Chanpheaktra and D Pugatch
- 211 Family-focused therapy via videoconferencing
B M Dausch, D J Miklowitz, H T Nagamoto, L E Adler and J H Shore